empted to extinguish the flames. Grabbing Mrs. Shiff, who is quite stout and eavy, she dragged her into the outer hall, where she left her on the floor, with her clothing still ablaze while the the fire in the bed.

Dog's Bark Brought Rescuer. The flames were getting beyond the hurse's control when her screams croused Prince. The dog was in the orridor outside the Gomprecht suite and his barks brought Mrs. Neill Mar.oy, the anitress to the rescue. The dog jumped gainst the door leading into Mrs. Gomprecht's apartments and Mrs. Malloy, hearing the cries of the nurse, entered the flat. Before going to the assistance of the three women, the clothing of all of whom was ablaze, the janitress screamed, and Max Pike, A. Keith and a man named Strauss, neighbors, ran to

By this time Mrs. Gomprecht, assisted by the nurse, had staggered out of bed and had fallen on the floor beside her mother, where Mrs. Mailoy was crushng out the flames on Mrs. Shiff's clothes with her hands.

Seven Were Burned. With the help of the three men the are was out out, but not before all were more or less painfully burned and

Dr. Eugene Monahan, of No. 1197 Boston road, was called and summoned Drs. Gundacher and Schwartzman. Mrs. Shiff suffered most seriously. Her hair and eyebrows were burned completely away, and her body, down to her waist, was badly scorched. Her precht was badly burned about the hands, and Mrs. Malloy to-day is swathed from head to foot in bandages as the result of her efforts. Each of the three men as well as the nurse was also burned.

Mrs. Malloy declared to-day that but for the barking of her dog she would never have heard the cries of the burning woman, and all the tenants are taking turns feeding Prince the very choicest morsels of their larders.

CAR SMASHES LOADED POLICE

Patrolmen and Prisoners Hurt -Motorman Thought It Would Turn Out.

East Eighty-eighth street police static on its way up Second avenue to the Harlem Court to-day was wrecked by a north-bound car. The car hit it at the rear end, smashing the rear axle. The policemen and their prisoners were buried in the wreckage. Policeman Hildebrand was bruised about the head, Patrolman Kumpf was cut on the forehead. Policeman Glinsman sustained a sprained wrist and lacerations. The prisoners, Joseph Dolan and Herman Sonnenick, arrested for drunkenness, were badly cut up, but no bones

The wagon was at One Hundred and went at a street when the car, going at a high speed, came down on it. The motorman. Louis Pinto, said he did not low down because he thought the wagwas going to turn west through One Hundred and Twentieth street, He was not arrested.

In the Harlen Court Magistrate House, after hearing the story of the collision, discharged both prisoners, and dvised the police to find the carste a Bronx Flat Fire.

The most petted dog in New York City to-day is Prince, of No. 1348 Clin ton avenue, the Bronx, through whose sagacity two women whose clothing was ablaze were saved from death. Mrs.
Mary Shiff, of No. 1236 Fulton avenue, the Bronx, and seven others were more or less seriously burned by the fire which made Prince a hero.

Mrs. Shiff is the mother of Mrs. Soymour A. Gomprecht, upon whom Mrs.
Bhiff was calling. Mrs. Gomprecht, deat and dumb, recently underwent an operation, and her mother came to wait upon the sick woman, who was in bed in a hird-floor flat.

As Mrs. Shiff passed a gas stove to raise a window shade, a feather fluster under her arm caught fire and in a moment her clothing was ablaze.

She ran screaming into the room where her daughter was and threw herself on the bed in terror. The bedclothes is nitted. Mrs. Gomprecht, a deaf mute, bould not scream and she was so weak she couldn't move.

mercury. She was hurried to Flower Hospital, where it was said she will recover. The large quantity of poison taken by her, it was explained, had acted as an emetic.

Mrs. A. W. Tomlinson, wife of the proprietor of the boarding-house where Miss Beauvais lived, declared that she could not explain the young woman's attempt at self-destruction.

Mrs. Tomlinson said that Miss Beauvais rarely had callers, despite the fact that she is very pretty and accomplished. The girl came to New York from some city in England seven months ago and has seen a roomer at the Tomlinson house since her arrival.

This morning when Mrs. Tomlinson went to the girl's room she found Miss Beauvais lying on the floor. The girl told the landlady that she had been poisoned, but did not say she had taken the drug herself. No notes or letters were found in the room, and at the hospital the young woman refused to talk.

sary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of this insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no part of the body will be exempt from the ravages of this powerful disease. Usually the first symptom is a little sore or ulcer, insignificant in itself, but soon the blood becomes so contaminated that the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, hair and eyebrows come out, copper colored spots appear on the body, and frequently sores and ulcers break out on the flesh to humiliate the sufferer. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the circulation. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison, and making this fluid pure, fresh and health-sustaining. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S., and continues until every trace of the disease is removed from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. Not one particle of the poison is left for future out-breaks after S. S. S. has purged and purified the blood. Book on the home treatment of this disease and any medical advice desired THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA. free.
